

Open Cabinets

Come with us to see our beautiful collection of furniture. This tour is a great way to experience the hidden colours and intricate workmanship of the Syon House furniture collection. The tour will take you into various rooms within the house, featuring a wide range of furniture from the seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth Century. Cabinets that are normally locked to the public, will be specially opened to view on this specialist tour.

