

Revolution, Romanticism and the Regency

With Sheree Bellingham

Wednesday, 3rd October
2.00pm

European wars, the Regency and reign of George IV had a huge impact on fashionable society, and this can still be seen today in the work of the 3rd Duke and Duchess of Northumberland at Syon House.

This tour will look at their extensive building work, and glimpse through the collection the splendour of the period. The Northumberlands created a fashionable home in which to receive royalty, whilst at the same time preserving Robert Adam's stunning eighteenth century Neo-classicism.