

The Great Conservatory

With Simon Hadleigh-Sparks

This Great Conservatory specific informal walk will be a stroll through and around Syon's famous Domed Great Conservatory designed by Charles Fowler and finished in 1827, its history and use in modern times. It was built to house the Duke of Northumberland's tropical plants, and was described as "the most beautiful garden building in Britain" in the London Illustrated News.

Your Guide Simon has been at Syon for 19 years as a Gardener, Tour Guide and looks after Filming.....
