Travel

You must only come to Syon Park if you can travel safely.

If you or one of your party is sick then you must postpone your visit.

There are 2 entrances into the park - Brent Lea pedestrian entrance in Brentford and Park Road in Isleworth for vehicles.

The car park is open for those with tickets to the gardens.

Route

We will be operating a one-way route around the gardens, going through the Great Conservatory.

Safety and signage

Please adhere to the signs, particularly at narrow paths and at no entry points.

There will be hand sanitisers available at the entrance and exit, with washing facilities at the toilets.

Food and drink

Birdie's Kitchen has just opened in the park. Open daily from 8.30am to 5.30pm. Sample menu

You are welcome to picnic in the gardens beyond the Great Conservatory but please take your rubbish home.

Shopping

The garden centre closed before Christmas and although plans are to have another one just not quite yet, so watch this space.

The Visitor Centre Shop won't be open to start with.

Dogs

Only assistance dogs are permitted in the gardens.

Miscellaneous

The Syon Park gardens are for the quiet enjoyment of all visitors. Ball Games, Barbecues, Cycling, Roller Blades, Scooters, Fishing and the use of radios (except with headphones) are not permitted in the gardens.

Memberships and discounts.

Those using discounts and offers for Syon Park need to apply a code at the basket stage. Those with memberships don't need to book. You must show a valid pass or voucher on entry.
